Each student and their family are responsible to help setup, cleanup and bring refreshments to one meeting during the year. We usually have 4-5 families helping each month to share the duties. Although we will attempt to assign you to your top choice, please indicate your top 3 choices from the following months:

August ____ *September ____ October ____ November ____
January ____ February ____ March ____ April ____

*Please note: the September meeting will be the induction ceremony. Although everyone will be bringing refreshments to this event, we do need families to volunteer to help setup and cleanup for this event.

If you have multiple students, please submit a separate application for each student. Enclose the following with the completed application:

1. A copy (non-returnable) of one nationally standardized test from the most current testing period that meets the chapter's requirements. Re-qualifying is required every other year for senior members. Accepted tests and scores:

Iowa/Stanford	90th percentile composite/complete battery
PSAT	180
SAT	1800
ACT	26

These tests are mandatory based on the National Society's requirements.
2. A non-refundable check for $15 for chapter expenses, made payable to Regina Bryson. (If your student does not meet the chapter's testing criteria, your check will be returned.)

This application and items above should be submitted in person or by mail to:
David and Regina Bryson
3800 Willow Creek Drive
Raleigh, NC 27604

Application must be postmarked or delivered by October 1, 2009.
